

Humphrey, Salinger, Brown Here Monday

By CHARLIE JOW

Big time politics will come to SJS next week.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (Minn.), Democratic vice-presidential candidate, will appear on campus Monday noon with California U.S. Sen. Pierre Salinger and Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown.

The three prominent politicians will be on Seventh Street in an hour-long rally sponsored by the SJS Democratic Club.

Gov. Brown, termed the leading Democrat in California at the present, will introduce Sen. Humphrey and Sen. Salinger, who will deliver campaign speeches.

The governor and senators will arrive on campus via a motorcade from San Francisco, turning off Bayshore Freeway onto First Street, traveling to W. San Carlos and finally to Seventh Street for the outdoor rally.

According to a Democratic

Headquarters spokesman, this will be the only appearance in San Jose for President Lyndon

PIERRE SALINGER
... U.S. Senator

B. Johnson's running mate, SJS will also be the only campus stop for the senator in California.

After the rally, Sen. Humphrey will go directly to the Municipal Airport and leave for Cheyenne, Wyo.

Local Democratic candidates in the upcoming elections will also be present at the rally. William Stanton, Inc. Assemblyman, 25th Dist.; Bill Jennings, Inc. Assemblyman, 22nd Dist.; E. Day Carman, candidate in the 10th Congressional Dist.; and possibly Don Edwards, incumbent, in the 9th Congressional Dist., will be on the platform with the notables.

Sen. Humphrey, 53, was graduated from the University of Minnesota, where he was a Phi Beta Kappa. He received his M.A. in political science from Louisiana State University.

The vice-presidential candidate is well-known as a champion for the civil rights cause. As mayor of Minneapolis he established the nation's first Municipal Fair Employment Practices Commission in 1940.

At the 1948 Democratic convention in Philadelphia he led a successful fight for a strong

HUBERT HUMPHREY
... VP nominee

civil rights plank in the party's platform. His successful fight led to the walkout of some Southern delegates who formed their own State's Rights party and ran Strom Thurmond, then governor of South Carolina, for president.

Humphrey became the first Democrat to be U.S. Senator from Minnesota when he defeated Sen. Joseph H. Hall for the post in 1948.

The Minnesota senator has served as co-sponsor of the nuclear test ban, United Nations, and in 1958 was a delegate to the UNESCO conference in Paris. He was elected Senate Majority Whip in 1961.

The South Dakota-born senator has three sons and one daughter.

Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown is currently serving his second term in office.

Gov. Brown, a native of San Francisco, was district attorney there and in 1947 was appointed attorney general for the State of California. As State attorney general he was a Democrat serving in a Republican administration.

In 1958 he defeated Sen. Wil-

EDMUND G. BROWN
... Governor

liam F. Knowland for the governorship, and four years later was re-elected over former vice president Richard Nixon.

Pierre Salinger, also a native San Franciscan, was appointed U.S. Senator in mid-summer after the death of Sen. Claire Engle.

Sen. Salinger was graduated from USF and then worked as a newsman. He rose from copy boy to night city editor on the San Francisco Chronicle.

As a journalist he was guest lecturer at Mills College and West Coast editor and contributing editor to Collier's magazine.

California's newest senator was Democratic press secretary for many state and national elections in California and served as press secretary to Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Sen. Salinger served as Presidential Press secretary to President Kennedy and President Johnson. He resigned the latter post in March and announced his candidacy for U.S. Senator from California.

Scientist To Discuss Proposition 14 Today

The role of a Christian and the church in the "civil rights revolution" will be discussed by General Electric scientist Dr. Morris Sanderson this afternoon at 3:30 in cafeteria rooms A and B.

Dr. Sanderson also will discuss some of the "ethical issues" of Proposition 14 on the November ballot, which would repeal parts of the Rumford Act.

His speech is to stress "the reason why most of the major religious bodies and leaders in California are opposing Proposition 14."

Dr. Sanderson recently returned from Mississippi where he has been working with "civil rights" groups. He now plans to head the coordination of a commission on religion and race for the United Presbyterians of Northern California.

At present, Dr. Sanderson is on leave from his job as an atomic scientist with General Electric Corp. and is acting as the traveling secretary for the Council on Religion and Race.

Grid Contest Debuts Today In Daily

Editor's Note: Entry blank for this week's Spartan Grid Picks is on page 5.

Spartan Grid Picks, an exciting and profitable new football contest, makes its debut in today's Spartan Daily. First place winners in the contest each week will receive free round-trip, jet-powered flights to Los Angeles on Pacific Southwest Airlines. Five runner-up contestants will win pairs of tickets to the United Artists Theater.

The contest will appear in the Spartan Daily every Wednesday for nine weeks. Entry blanks and contest rules are included on the page. Contestants are not required to make any purchases and no predicting of scores is necessary. Contestants merely write in the merchandise special that appears in each sponsor's advertisement and predict the winners.

Contest winners will be announced in the Spartan Daily and each winner will become guest predictor in the Daily's sports department football predictions feature.

Contestants are asked to bring their entry blanks to J207 before 4:30 p.m. Friday.

The sponsors who are supporting the Spartan Grid Picks are: Spartan Bookstore, Pacific Southwest Airlines, California Bookstore, Armstrong's Pharmacy, Roos/Atkins, House of Records, Vaughn's Clothing, Henry's Hamburgers, Cuggins' Pizza, Silva Service, Robert's Bookstore, Hudson's Jewelers, United Artists Theater, Puritan Oil Co., and Bloom's Shoes.

Standards Committee To Elect Chairman At AWS Meeting

AWS Judicial Board will hold its semester orientation meeting for Standards Committee representatives from approved women's living centers tomorrow at 7 p.m. in ED100. A Standards Committee chairman will be elected. All representatives are required to attend.

Youth Topic Of Address By Consul

"Problems Facing Today's German Youth" will be considered by Dr. Klaus Juergen Citron, San Francisco consul for the Federal Republic of Germany, tomorrow, 2:30 p.m., in E327.

Dr. Citron's visit is in conjunction with the "Germany: A New Generation" photography exhibit on display in the SJS library through Oct. 15. His talk is co-sponsored by the German Club and the Department of Journalism and Advertising, which brought the photography exhibit to SJS.

The talk will be followed by a question-answer session and, later, a German Club meeting. Coffee will be served.

Dr. Citron, who was born in Berlin in 1929, studied German and French literature at the universities of Kiel, Germany, and Lyons and Paris, France. He was awarded his Ph.D. by the University of Kiel in 1954.

He was assistant professor of German literature from 1955 to 1956 at the "Ecole Centrale des Arts et Manufactures" in Paris. And from 1956 to 1959, he was an assistant professor of German language and literature at the University of Bologna, Italy.

In 1959, Dr. Citron entered the German foreign service and served as vice consul in San Francisco until 1962, when he was appointed consul.

Vet's Study List

Korean vets and war orphans are urged to report to window No. 13 in the Registrar's office to fill their study list cards as soon as possible. The signups for the pay period September and October will be held Nov. 2, 3, 4 and 5.

ASB Heads Meet Here

Sixteen ASB presidents of California's state colleges, (CSCSPA), will meet at SJS Oct. 9-11.

ASB presidents of the 16 state colleges will convene to discuss issues considered vital to the 130,000 students of California's state colleges.

Bruce MacDonald, ASB attorney general, will be conference chairman.

According to Bob Pisano, ASB president, the conference delegates are expected to discuss student unions, Proposition 2, and the future maintenance of minimum student service fees.

CSCSPA was formed in 1959. It is the only statewide organization recognized by the Board of Trustees and the Chancellor's office as the official voice of state college students.

In past years, CSCSPA has been active in the student union issue, and in the matter of minimum wages for student workers at those state colleges which had no provisions for minimum wages.

Co-Rec Begins, 'Spardi Swings' With Invaders

"Spardi Swings" is theme of tonight's Co-Rec program 7:30-9:45 in the Women's Gym, first in a weekly series for this semester.

Tonight's activities include volleyball, ping pong, swimming, and dancing, as well as some special events.

Music for the dancing will be supplied by a rock 'n' roll band, the Invaders. Students wishing to swim are reminded to bring their own swim suits and towels, according to Miss Dianne Dehnke, student Co-Rec publicity chairman for this program.

Admission is free to ASB card holders, and Miss Dehnke urges all students, especially freshmen and new students, to take advantage of this opportunity to meet new people and to make new friends.

SJS Flying Club To Meet Tonight

The Flying 20, the SJS student-owned flying club, is holding its first meeting of the semester in E132 at 7:30 tonight.

Jim Booth, club president, said that membership and a discussion of flying costs and methods will be discussed. They own two Cessna aircraft. The club's purpose is mainly to provide low cost primary flight training for SJS students.

Stanton Criticizes Both Rumford Act, Prop. 14

By AL MASON

"Proposition 14 is purely and simply the most horrendous proposition ever proposed to the people of California," said Assemblyman William F. Stanton (D-San Jose) to an audience of about 150 students in cafeteria A and B yesterday afternoon.

Stanton's off-the-cuff speech, billed as "Extremism—A Virtue?", dwelt entirely on the issue of proposition 14 on the November ballot, which would repeal the Rumford Act.

The local Assemblyman was a co-author of the controversial Rumford Act. He recalled the legislative progress of the Act when it passed the California legislature a year ago, and stated, "I never considered it a threat to the property rights of anyone."

Stanton noted that "about 180 complaints have been filed under this law" in its first year of existence, and called the figure "a trivial number."

Although claiming to be confident that Johnson would carry California in November, Stanton said he was much less confident that Proposition 14 would be defeated. If Proposition 14 passes, Stanton claimed, "the image of the United States and the image of California as the most sophisticated State will be tarnished."

Stanton then criticized the Rumford Act itself as being too weak. Because "it is extremely difficult to prove discrimination," Stanton alleged, "this law (Rumford Act) is nothing more than an expression of public policy." Stanton, who is also a lawyer, says he acted as attorney for the plaintiff in one case under the Rumford Act and lost.

"The only relief that the Rumford Act offers is to someone who has $20,000 or $30,000 to buy a house," the Assemblyman added, "the real problem (of racial minorities) is in the ghetto."

SAM Orientation Planned Tonight

San Jose State's chapter organization for the advancement of "management SAM: the oldest of the arts—the youngest of professions" will hold its fall orientation meeting today at 7 p.m. in Concert Hall.

Last semester the 310 member organization won all five management awards given nationally.

Bruce Macumber, president of SAM, will explain the basic functions and benefits of the 210 university chapter organization.

Refreshments will be served in the faculty cafeteria following the meeting.

Part-Time Work

All students interested in part-time and vacation employment during the Fall semester are urged to attend an information meeting tomorrow or Friday, Oct. 1 or 2 from 2-3 p.m., in TH55.

ASSEMBLYMAN WILLIAM F. STANTON, (D-San Jose) is shown addressing SJS students yesterday in Cafeteria rooms A and B.

Three Advertising Students To Receive Scholarships

Three SJS advertising students are among eight who will receive scholarships from the Northern California Council of American Advertising Agencies at a luncheon this afternoon in the Monterey Room of the Sir Francis Drake Hotel, San Francisco.

The students fulfilled their required internships last summer by working for agencies which are members of the association. The scholarship awards are based on the student's summer work, plus their scholastic performance. Each student wrote an essay this summer and will give a talk tomorrow on what they learned during their internship.

The three SJS students receiving the scholarships and the agencies for which they worked are Janet Braun, Long Advertising, Inc., San Jose; Thomas E. Hennessy, J. Walter Thompson Co.; and Charles L. Gould Jr., Honig-Cooper & Harrington.

Miss Braun is the present ad manager for the Spartan Daily. Hennessy is the present promotion manager, and Gould was last year's promotion manager.

The students will be accompanied to the luncheon by Mr. Charles E. Marshall, who was in charge of the advertising internships this summer.

Other students to be honored and their summer agencies include Jerry R. Packard, Cunningham & Walsh, Inc.; Ronni C. Sims, Richard N. Meltzer Advertising, Inc.; Donald O. Streltsoff, Young & Rubicam; John Fox, Constantine & Gardner, Inc.; and Barbara J. Lewis, Guild, Bascom & Bonfigli, Inc.

Rally Committee To Hold Meeting

Fall general meeting of the SJS Rally Committee will be held today at 3:30 in ED100.

The purpose of this meeting is to introduce students to Rally Committee activities for this semester.

Executive Board of the committee will appoint vice chairmen to fill newly created sub-committee heads such as card stunts, publicity campaigns and high school rally conventions.

The meeting is open to all students interested in campus activities.

Today's Weather

Temperatures ranged from a 69 high to a 54 low yesterday. Today's range is expected to be 73 to 50. There is little change expected in the weather.

CSTA Barbecue Set for Next Week

A "get acquainted" barbecue will be given by the California Student Teachers Association (CSTA) of SJS from 5 to 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 7, at the barbecue pit located in front of the Women's Gymnasium.

The program includes a steak dinner, the presentation of new officers and a discussion of what the CSTA is and its plans for the coming year. All students interested in teaching are invited to attend. The cost of the dinner will be $1.

Daily Comment

Proposition 2 Funds Earmarked for Colleges

Students on various college campuses throughout California are taking to the campaign trail this week in a battle to secure a "yes" vote on Proposition 2.

Proposition 2 is a $380 million bond issue which will go before the public on the November general election ballot. The money from the passage of this proposition is especially earmarked for higher education.

California's higher educational system has been termed throughout the nation as one of the best. One of the primary reasons for this compliment by our nation's top educational advisers is foresight. California developed a Master Plan for Higher Education to meet the demands of its fast growing population.

Despite this foresight, the population growth of California has far exceeded any expectation. Recent reports have indicated that in 10 years our colleges and universities will not be able to meet the demands of its population. At the present, California has been able to meet expanding population needs by providing adequate space for its young adults.

California must insure its higher educational future by constructing more facilities, employing the latest in equipment and hiring qualified instructors. Proposition 2 is part of that insurance. A "Yes" vote on Proposition 2 will insure a place for today's children in tomorrow's colleges.

PAID RELIGIOUS ADVERTISEMENT

Man-Made "Religion" Is Damning the World

If you are fed up with "religion" you're on the right track. "Religion" has been defined as man's best effort to find God. Man seeks and strives religiously to rise to the perfection of a High and Holy God. Many crimes have been committed in the name of "religion".

Christianity is different. Christianity is God reaching down in mercy to rescue lost men. There is a world of difference between "religion" and Christianity.

As men attempt to merge religions and to find common grounds for their faiths, Christianity continues to express God's desire that men be saved by personally meeting and being joined to our Lord Jesus Christ.

"Religion" stresses that man should strive for perfection. The Bible calls attention to the total depravity of man and his helplessness to do anything about it. (Romans 3:10-20). "Religion" emphasizes the importance of works and efforts to earn favor with God; the Bible says that good works and behavior are only possible as Jesus Christ lives through a regenerated believer. (Galatians 5).

"Religion" hopes for world peace by compromise and tolerance of diverse ideas. Christianity speaks out boldly against sin and idolatry, pointing again and again to the necessity of personal conversion and the new birth without which no man has any merit in the sight of God.

Chances are, if you grew up in this country, you have seen the open hypocrisy and idolatry in religions, including a large portion of professing Christendom. Don't be misled by "religion" or by the man-made barriers which hide the true Light of the world, Jesus Christ, who is a living Person you can meet.

There is only one thing which really counts in this world or the next and that is your personal relationship to the Lord Jesus Christ, the Head of the True Church, The Great Shepherd of our souls, the Lamb of God slain for our salvation.

"Religion" is not the answer to anything; personal commitment to Jesus Christ is the answer to everything.

Before he met Jesus Christ the Apostle Paul was one of the most religious and well-educated men of his day, but he discovered that "religion" had led him away from the truth! Paul states that he was, "...circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law a Pharisee, as to zeal, a persecutor of the Church, as to righteousness under the law, blameless. But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For His sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as refuse, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own, based on law, but that which depends on faith; that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and may share His sufferings, becoming like Him in His death, that if possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead." (Philippians 3:5-11).

Won't you go directly to Jesus Christ today and settle your relationship with Him?

Question Man

Warren Commission

By SHERRY BROWN

Did the Warren Commission Report dispel all doubts you may have had concerning the assassination of President Kennedy?

Pat Collins, freshman, history:

"I don't think anything was gained by the death of Kennedy. I don't believe, for this reason, that there was a conspiracy. The Warren Commission has closed the incidents surrounding the assassination in my mind."

Fred Strohm, freshman, political science:

"It was an extreme tragedy that no one learned anything from President Kennedy's death. They should have learned that as long as violence prevails in a society, assassinations are a possibility."

Gary Nielson, junior, psychology:

"Absolutely not. The Warren Commission consistently rejected any attempts to examine information which was in conflict with the FBI's report. These governmental agencies took great pains to find an answer which was acceptable to the American public, as well as preventing other persons from gaining information or a hearing for their objections. 'There is something rotten in America,' as a modern day Hamlet might say."

Nancy Maxwell, junior, psychology:

"No. Specific questions that were raised in my mind from sources other than the Commission—such as Mark Lane—were not answered to my satisfaction. For example, why were not all means of transportation from Dallas not closed following the shots? Why were a number of witnesses convinced the shots came from in front of the President's car? The Warren Commission, unfortunately, did not convince me."

Rich Kaslik, junior, engineering:

"Another typical move by the United States agencies to reassure the people that their security against underlying forces is being combated; preservation of the American image abroad."

Gini Irving, graduate, social science:

"I think that it conclusively proved that the act was isolated rather than a conspiracy. It showed it was not directed against one man or his ideas because he (Oswald) had contemplated doing violence against Nixon and Eisenhower and did attempt to assassinate General Walker."

Larry Valente, junior, business:

"In my opinion no agency can solve all my doubts as to President Kennedy's assassination because the truth was lost with Lee Oswald's death. So many facts are yet to be clarified. Time will be the deciding factor."

SJS Coeds 'Beautiful'?

The ego of SJS coeds received a boost from a recent San Francisco Chronicle feature on Bay Area campus beauties.

In the Sept. 13 Bonanza section, the Chronicle concluded that SJS coeds are "the prettiest, most natural, most believably beautiful girls on the Bay Area campus scene."

"If they're any example of what's happening in higher education, we say the beauty of learning is certainly not all in books," the article stated.

Also included was a call for "all loyal college men" to challenge the Chronicle's choice by sending in pictures of other beauties, "if there are such lovely creatures as these in the institution of your choice."

The article was accompanied by photographs picturing nine SJS beauties, three of which were in color, including the cover page.

Castro Indicates Government in Red Economically Too

MIAMI (UPI)—Cuban Premier Fidel Castro indicated Monday night that his government is in the red economically almost as much as it is politically, he blamed his plight on "deadbeat" tenants living in confiscated houses and apartments.

Castro said the Cuban government, as landlord of the dwellings seized by the thousands from their rightful owners during the past four years, really should evict the delinquent tenants.

"The revolution can never evict a family for not paying the rent," the premier said in a 2-hour speech broadcast by Radio Havana. He indicated, however, this generosity wasn't due entirely to sentiment.

"Where would they go?" he asked. "A city the size of Havana would be needed to accommodate all the tenants who could be evicted for not paying their rent." Havana has a population of about one million persons.

Despite these "deadbeats," Castro said, he plans to end food rationing within one year. Food rationing, along with restrictions on clothing and all consumer items, has been in effect on the Communist island since 1962.

Castro did not spell out his plan but he said:

"We must fix a limit, for the coming year, for the end of rationing books. We are going to make a pledge right now to the Cuban people to end rationing without damaging other efforts in other aspects of the economy."

Opera, Painting Featured In Salinas Appearance

By CAROLYN CHASE

A small crowd gathered in Concert Hall last night to hear a versatile artist from Chile.

The man is Alfonso Jose Salinas. His talents are painting and opera singing. Both of Salinas' talents were displayed at his performance.

Among the songs Salinas sang were selections from "Martha," by Simons; "Recondita Armonia," from "Tosca," by Puccini; "Mattinata," by Leoncavallo; "Torna Sorrento," by De Ceuja; "Granada," by Augustin Lara, and "La Musica Praibita," by Gastaldon.

Salinas is a member of the Chilean opera organization and studied in Santiago. He was accompanied by Senor Roberto Chiofalo, organist.

In the field of painting, many of Salinas' works were on display in Concert Hall. The pictures ranged from portraits of dogs to green countryside. During intermission a discussion of the paintings was given.

The program was sponsored by the local Freedom from Hunger Committee.

Democratic Club Campaign Drive Signs Members

San Jose State Democratic Club continues its membership drive with a 140-member boost pledged during registration week, according to Les Freund, treasurer and membership chairman.

"It is clear that the students on this campus, both Democrats and moderate Republicans, are vitally concerned with the issues in this Presidential campaign. They are joining together in support of President Johnson," Freund said.

The club's program this semester will include speakers from both national and local levels.

In addition, the club will be working for the defeat of Proposition 13.

"One of the goals of the Democratic Club at State is to offer the student body a meaningful alternative to the political conservatism of the Young Republicans," said Freund.

Those interested in joining may contact Joan Woodbury, president, at 269-5792, or Les Freund, membership chairman, 286-3632.

Faculty Art Show To Close Friday

The annual faculty art show is currently on display in the art gallery, A129, through Friday. The gallery is open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A total of 100 works is being exhibited. Paintings on display include the work of faculty members Sam Richardson, Wendall Gates, Robert Griffith, J. Richard Sorby, Dave Hatch, Fred Spratt and Maynard Stewart.

In the field of sculpture are works in metal by Leonard Stanley, wooden sculpture by Thomas Kisner, and ceramic sculptures by Wendall Gates and John Leary.

Ceramics on exhibition are by James Crawford, Robert Fritz, James Lovera, John Leary, C. N. McCann, Herbert Sanders, Robert Coleman and Rex Mason.

D. G. Cannon and Douglas Vogel submitted works in mixed media, Anna Ballarian and Peter Raven are displaying printed textiles and hooked rugs, and David Donoho has an exhibit on photography.

Also on display are jewelry by Robert Coleman and John Leary, free-blown glass by Robert Fritz, mosaics by Harry Powers, and assemblages by J. Richard Sorby and James Crawford.

The San Jose State College Art Department has 47 faculty members teaching more than 800 student art majors.

SJS Frosh Hosts UOP

Coach John Webb's frosh football team tangles with University of Pacific's yearlings tomorrow at Spartan Stadium at 3:30 p.m.

It will be the second game of the season for the Spartans, who defeated San Quentin 13-6 last week. Webb, in his first season as head coach, describes his team as having "more depth than frosh teams in recent years." He has good reason to feel this way.

At quarterback he has two All-Central Coast performers. Bob Toledo, Lincoln High School of San Jose signal caller, and Jim Webster, James Lick High School, are fighting it out. Both tossed 60-yard touchdown passes in the win over San Quentin.

Toledo was named a first team All-Central Coast selection and Webster was right behind him being named to the second team.

UOP will field one of its finest frosh teams in recent seasons, according to Webb.

Freshman Water Poloists
Entertain Menlo-Atherton

The freshman water polo team, a decisive winner against San Jose City College last week, engages tougher competition today at 4 p.m. in the Spartan Pool. The Spartans play host to Menlo-Atherton High School, one of the finest teams in Northern California.

Menlo-Atherton will be without the services of their best player, Dick Roth, who has left for Tokyo with the Olympic swimming team. "We still can't afford to relax, however," said Coach Walton.

"Our team," continued Walton, "is improving with every practice. Our defense is not fully developed, but our offense is strong. Captain Steve Hoberg is the best shooter and ball handler on the team. Nick Richards, Bruce McCall, and Greg Swan have all shown great potential."

"For the past two years we have had the best freshmen water polo team in Northern California. This year's team will have difficult shoes to fill because most of the teams in the League are vastly improved."

Tennis Deadline

NIGERIAN BOOTER—Co-captain Efiok Akpan leads the Spartan soccer team against the Air Force Academy Saturday night at Spartan Stadium. The game is sponsored by the San Jose Elks Lodge and will begin at 8 o'clock.

Big Crowd Expected

USAF Booters Invade
San Jose Saturday

Spartan Stadium will be the site of a big game Saturday night, not football, but a soccer match between the United States Air Force Academy and San Jose State.

A crowd of 7,000 fans is expected at the intersection clash, scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock.

The benefit game will be sponsored by the San Jose Elks Lodge.

Last year the Spartans edged the Falcons 6-5 at Spartan Stadium before 4,234 fans, the largest crowd ever to watch a soccer game in Santa Clara Valley. San Jose scored two last quarter goals to win the thriller.

This year the contest promises to be another down-to-the-wire match. Both teams are rated among the top teams in the West. The Falcons are title favorites in the Rocky Mountain Conference, while the Spartans, participants in last year's NCAA Western Regional, will be title contenders in the Northern California Intercollegiate Conference.

With 11 lettermen returning, including five seniors, the Air Force will bring a very well conditioned and experienced team here, according to SJS coach Julie Menendez.

"They'll be in excellent condition because they have been practicing two or three months already," said Menendez. "They stress year-round fitness at the academy and are noted for rugged play," he added.

The Falcons feature a strong front line headed by Captain Hugh Bryant at center forward, two year letterman Jim Perry and Jim Thames at inside positions, Bryant and Perry are seniors, while Thames is a junior.

Harry Rodman, senior two year letterman and candidate for All-American honors last year, is an outstanding fullback performer for the Falcons, according to Menendez.

The Spartans, victors over San Francisco State Friday night 6-1, will field a lineup headed by senior co-captains Efiok Akpan and Al Korbus.

Akpan, the Nigerian exchange student, kicked two goals in Friday's win, while Korbus was praised for playing an outstanding game by Menendez.

In a pre-game ceremony Saturday night, Carson Conrad, chief of the bureau of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, and Richard Alves, Elks' Lodge exalted ruler, will kick the ball out.

San Jose State students will be admitted free to the contest with student body cards.

Hodge on Olympic Team

LOS ANGELES (UPI) -- The U. S. Olympic committee Monday added Russ Hodge of Santa Clara Valley, Calif., to the decathlon team to end a dispute over selection of the men who will compete in Tokyo.

NEW ON CAMPUS?

If you are, you'll need a neat, clean, reasonable, restaurant to go out to once in a while. Be sure and try Angelo's Steak House. Great food—College prices.

ANGELO'S STEAK HOUSE
72 East Santa Clara Street
San Jose

Hodge and Dick Emberger tied for first place in the decathlon earlier this month in the final Olympic trials, but Emberger was selected to compete because of better marks in seven events.

The Olympic committee earlier had ruled that only the first place winner would join the winners of the National AAU Decathlon, previously held, as the U. S. participants.

The two men previously selected were Paul Herman and Don Jeisy. Under a revised committee ruling, Herman, Jeisy, Emberger and Hodge go to Tokyo and the three who actually compete in the Olympiad will be chosen by Saturday.

Family of Athletes

Bob Bonds, senior end on the SJS varsity football team, is not the only athlete in his family. His sister, Rosie Bonds, is on the women's Olympic team and has competed in the last two U.S.-Soviet Union meets.

Spats, Bears, 49ers—A Frustrating Weekend

By DAVE PAYNE
Daily Sports Editor

The term "frustration" might be used for what Bay Area sports fans—college and professional—went through last weekend.

Of course the interest in this area was aimed at the San Jose State-Stanford football game at Palo Alto Saturday.

The Spartans, down 3-0 with less than a minute remaining in the first half, clicked on a Ken Berry to Bob Bonds pass for a 58-yard touchdown play. But SJS right guard Jim Ross was called for holding which cost the Spartans a touchdown and 15 yards.

DAVE PAYNE

Ross was called for holding his hands away from his body while blocking. The rule stipulates that an offensive blocker must keep his hands and arms close to his body. It was just one of those things—one has to take the good with the bad.

Two other misfortunes involved SJS kicking specialist Richard Tatley. On the Spartans' initial drive, Tatley had a good shot at a field goal from the Stanford 12-yard line—a fumbled snap from center foiled the attempt. He later missed one from the 18-yard line.

Tatley's final afternoon attempt came from the Stanford 45 on a fourth down and less than a yard situation for San Jose. NO COMMENT.

It appeared to be fate that a win just wasn't in the books for Coach Bob Titchenal's troops.

University of California came within inches of defeating the number three team in the country—Illinois—but lost, 20-14.

The Illini led, 20-6, with less than two minutes remaining in the game when Cal scored and added a two-point conversion.

The Bears successfully pulled an onside kick. QB Craig Morton completed two side-line passes before unloading a 30-yard pass into the end zone that was caught by Jerry Bradley.

But as he came down with the pass, his foot landed on the chalkline (says back judge Rudy Hansen). UC athletic director Pete Newell disagreed with the decision.

It appeared to be fate that a win just wasn't in the books for UC Coach Ray Wilsey's troops.

The San Francisco 49ers had nine penalties against them for 84 yards in their 23-13 loss to St. Louis Sunday.

There were 30,000 dismayed Kezar Stadium fans who started booing the referees in the third period. Penalties gave the Cards a first and goal on the 49er one. It took the visitors 15 minutes to run four plays—they couldn't hear the signals thanks to the crowd noise.

The Cards took the ball over for six on fourth down. SF's defensive men didn't think so. Thus resulted a hot argument between players and refs.

A few fisticuffs were added to the football game. It appeared the Cardinal and 49er players were a little displeased with each other.

So, this would be no week to select the all-coast referees. Their keen (?) eyesight turned the tide on at least three games.

Sunday will bring the big time in ice hockey to the Bay Area. The San Francisco Seals, Western Hockey League representative, will host the National League Toronto Maple Leafs.

Toronto won its third successive Stanley Cup last year. Game time will be 7 p.m. at the San Francisco Cow Palace.

Saturday On The Farm

Titch Unhappy About Officiating

Bob Titchenal, SJS head football coach, was very unhappy over the referee's call against lineman Jim Ross that cost the Spartans a touchdown at Stanford Saturday.

"The pictures showed Ross using a screen block," said Titch. "We think he made a very fine block."

Commenting on the technicality of the call, Titch added, "If they're (referees) going to call penalties like the one on Ross, they might as well call a penalty on every block."

Ross wasn't actually called for holding. He illegally extended his arms away from his body while trying to block a Stanford lineman. Sometimes referees call the infraction, other times they don't watch it that closely.

San Jose tackle Brent Berry was named the outstanding lineman of the week by the Northern California Football Writers Association.

Berry is a junior business major from Cupertino.

UC's quarterback Craig Morton was named outstanding back of the week for his play against Illinois Saturday.

"Also the game movies showed both Stanford backs in motion (before the ball was snapped) on their touchdown play," Titchenal pointed out. "And an unnecessary roughness penalty called on (Dennis) Parker was the most ridiculous call I've ever seen."

Titch commented that this year's officiating at Stanford wasn't any worse than past seasons.

San Jose State ran into injury problems in Saturday's encounter. Titch lost both his left ends.

Dave Johnson is lost for the season with a broken arm just above the left elbow. Ben Ward broke his hand in the third period and was operated on Monday night. He is expected to return to the SJS lineup in a month.

"Reserve quarterback Doug Bockus is a good receiver, so we're going to use him on offense against Montana State," noted the SJS mentor. "We can use end Bill Peterson both ways and will use Rich Watts and Doug Duff on defense." Titch said he'll use more of a running game against Montana State Saturday.

Golf Champ Venturi Hails From State

By ART SIMBURG

Ken Venturi, "the comeback golfer of the year," is a 1953 San Jose State graduate.

Venturi, the San Francisco City champion while in high school, was an accomplished golfer player when he came to SJS.

He went to the nationals three times while in college, but like many good golfers, such as Arnold Palmer, he never won.

Venturi, however, did win the Western Intercollegiate twice against all the top golfers west of the Rockies. He and Gene Littler of San Diego State were hailed as the best amateurs in the west, but speculation concerning the better of the two ended after Venturi had three wins and a draw in their four matches together in college.

The list of Venturi's amateur titles include the California amateur championship which he won once in college, and again, soon after graduation. He was also twice selected for the Walker Cup. This is the highest honor an amateur golfer can receive.

A few years after he was graduated from SJS, Venturi led the Masters Tournament for three rounds and finally finished second. Soon afterwards, he became a professional. Arnold Palmer, Gene Littler, and Venturi were expected to be the golfers who would dominate the game after the demise of Sam Snead and Ben Hogan.

Loss of confidence resulting from injuries began to affect his game, however, and prior to his stunning U.S. Open victory this year, April, 1960 was his last tournament victory. In 1963 he won only $3,000, but his comeback this year has enabled him to be one of the leading 1964 golf money winners.

Venturi still has close ties with the school and every year he plays in the golf team reunion. In 1960 he staged an exhibition with Jerry Barber with proceeds going to the SJS golf program.

Accidents Topic Of Film Featured At SPU Meeting

"Uncontrollable accidents" were the subject of "The Hole," an animated film shown Monday in TH55 at a meeting of the Student Peace Union (SPU). The film, which won an award at the 1962 Cannes Film Festival, depicted two workmen in a construction hole under a street in New York.

The two men argue as to whether or not accidents are avoidable, but an ironic ending leaves little doubt as to the opinion of the film's producers.

Kim Maxwell, SPU president, began the meeting with an explanation of the purpose of SPU. He referred interested students to an information sheet that was handed out by SPU members at the door.

PLAN AHEAD

There will be a LIMITED SUPPLY of 3,000 yearbooks published this year to accommodate 20,000 students. For two years in a row LA TORRE has taken a First Class Honor Rating in collegiate yearbook competition. In both 1963 and 1964, many students and faculty members were unable to purchase these award-winning yearbooks because they failed to reserve a copy in advance. The 1965 yearbook will be bigger and better than ever. Many of those who fail to reserve books will again be unable to buy a LA TORRE. Plan ahead. Reserve your 1965 LA TORRE now! It will cost you less. And you won't be caught short in the sales rush next spring.
